Dear Members

Firstly I would like to welcome Paul Thomas to the team as the newly appointed Deputy President and I would like to thank Wade Lee for his service and commitment to the role over the last 2 years.

It has been a busy August around the club with the Board of Surf Life Saving getting ready for the patrol season making sure equipment is ready, skills maintenance updates for patrol members starting, and a new Bronze Squad commenced their training. Patrol gear is being repaired and serviced ready for season start, plus new equipment purchased is being commissioned for use including the new IRB hull and outboard motor.

In the next couple of weeks the awning at the front of the club is being replaced. The Board of Management have chosen to increase the length of the awning and construct the frame in aluminium with an insulated roof, to extend its life. The design should reduce the flow of smoke from the upstairs licensed area down into the club room..

Sometimes it seems people forget that all club equipment is purchased through money donated by Maroochy Supporters Club and the general public, or raised by our hardworking committees and volunteers. It is getting harder to source these funds year in, year out, so please look after our valuable Club assets – report damage, take care of equipment and put equipment and gear away in the correct storage areas.

SLSQ held its Awards of Excellence Gala on 14 August and I was proud to see Maroochy members receive recognition for their contributions to Life Saving in Queensland.

Ben Ellwood was the recipient of the 18 to 25 Young Lifesaver of the Year award. Ralph Devlin was congratulated on his outstanding service as outgoing State President for SLSQ, and Peter Lucas was granted Life Membership. Congratulations to Ben, Ralph and Peter on making a positive difference to the Life Saving movement.

I must not forget the outstanding effort by Ollie Hoelscher and Pat Lafferty to win the ResusAnn Skills Manikin for the club by performing the best resuscitation at the conference. A near perfect score of 99% accuracy and Maroochy now has a $4,500 training manikin for our members to use.

The club's Social Calendar has been busy with the Board of Marketing & Promotion in conjunction with CEO, Lindsey Palmer and his staff running and organising the half-year Golf Day and Maroochy SLSC Race Day. The annual Race Day, was a great success with over 205 people coming down to Corbould Park including a number of the club's younger members who joined Surf Girl, Darcy Star –Thomas on the day.

27 August the club welcomed home our two Rio Olympians, Alyce Burnett & Jordan Wood, where we had the chance to hear about the highs of the games. It was a great afternoon with a large number of club members attending the event and showing the club's support of these fine athletes.

Right now 5 Maroochy members are in The Netherlands representing Australia at the 2016 Life Saving World Championships. Pam Hendry, Sam Bell, Chelsea Gillett and Cody Rychvalsky have been selected as part of the competitive squad, and Danny Short as Head Coach. This competition will be live streamed and results will be updated on Twitter @auslifesaving and Facebook.

As some of our athletes go overseas, another group return. The 2016 Shimoda Exchange representatives; Ollie Hoelscher, Maddi Korac, Drew Beveridge and Beau Farrell are back in Australia after returning from helping the beaches of Shimoda. From all accounts this has been another successful trip with friendships forged between our two clubs. This is the last newsletter before the season gets off and running on 17th September. I urge all members to maintain our proud tradition of having No Lives Lost between the Flags into the 2016-2017 seasons, and to remain vigilant in their duties and continue to offer the exceptional service that Maroochy has always provided.

See you on the beach, or at one of our club events!

Steve Wieland - 0409 497 912

Surf Life Saving Maroochy

The 2015/16 Patrol Season was a busy year on Maroochy beaches, with our volunteer lifesavers performing 79 rescues, 49 first aid treatments, and 1,216 preventative actions while looking out for 112,163 beachgoers.

Our activities on the beach are always carried out by volunteer lifesavers.

Paid lifeguards patrol during the week and are employed by Surf Life Saving Queensland who have an agreement with Sunshine Coast Regional Council to supply the trained lifeguards.

Lifesaving

September has arrived which means the patrolling season is upon us. Hopefully all patrolling members have seen the roster for the first half of the season. Each patrol has five half days up until just after New Year's. For our two patrols trialling full days, you have two early in the season after which we'll assess whether they're working or not. There are some modifications happening with the arena to make it more user friendly and new vinyls being organised for the towers. Special thanks to Michelle Burnett & Drew Moles for their work on these projects as well as overseeing board repairs. It was great to see the first group complete their proficiencies last Sunday and leading by example were our Olympians, Alyce Burnett & Jordan Wood as well as our president, Steve Weiland. Special mention also to the "boaties", who were the best represented group at that session. A number of our members attended the SLSQ conference at Twin Waters last month and we've brought back a number of ideas to implement in our programmes. I'm sure our winners will be mentioned elsewhere in this newsletter but congratulations firstly to Oliver Hoelscher & Patrick Lafferty who won the CPR competition held over the duration of the conference – winning a manikin for the club valued at over $4000. The big Maroochydore winner at the Awards night was Ben Ellwood, named Lifesaver of the Year - 18-25 year olds. This is a truly prestigious award that Ben thoroughly deserved and we can take great pride from his achievement.

To the patrol captains, our kick-off meeting on September 10 will now start at 3pm. By the end of that session, we'll all be more comfortable with what is required for inspections and how to prepare for that scenario on every patrol. We'll also have a good grasp on the patrol gap calculator to assess strengths & development needs for each patrol and will be familiar with the LIMSOC programme on iPad where patrol statistics & incident reporting will be captured this season. Patrol sign-on will remain a paper process this season.

I look forward to seeing you all on the beach in your red & yellows, having fun & keeping the beach safe.

VALE-Life Member Noel 'Tommy' Godfrey

On Friday 13 May this year in the Centenary year of Maroochydore Surf Life Saving Club, 'Tommy' Godfrey, together with his wife Sandra, attended his last Life Members Lunch.

'Tommy' came to say goodbye. He knew that his terminal illness would soon take him, yet he summoned some strength from somewhere to attend a function with his mates from his beloved surf club.

Noel Godfrey, known as 'Tommy' joined Maroochydore SLSC in early 1951 and gained his lifesavers qualification, the Bronze Medallion, on 18 November 1951. There were 21 Bronze Medallion awards gained that year in the club, signalling the best ever post war season for the club.

Tom was elected to Life Membership of the club in 1967, an honour he never took for granted and always treasured.

The presence of so many senior Life Members and senior members today demonstrates the regard in which Tommy was held.

Tom was a regular attendee of major events, proudly wearing his Life Membership tie and badge, and took particular pleasure in the events of our Centenary season. He was third generation cane farmer at Bli Bli, his Grandfather William having selected the land in the late 1800's.

In fact, in the early years of 1900 his Grandfather William featured in one of the miracle rescues at the treacherous Maroochy river mouth during a flood event. He was swept out to sea and was found by a search party perched naked in a tree in the middle of the night. Tom used to tell the story with great gusto, describing one of the many near-misses on the Maroochy bar that led to the formation of the surf club in 1916.

Tom joined the club with his scouting mate Kevin Short. It was before the Bli Bli Bridge was built, so Tommy would row over to the Cod Hole from the North Shore, grab his little old car and drive the couple of miles down to the Surf Club.

He had a near-miss himself one night when, after becoming 'tired and emotional' at the old Maroochy Pub with his surf club mates Col Lister and Bill Bethe, they attempted a night crossing to the farm. One of them leaned out a bit far and they all found themselves in the water. Tom was a good swimmer though and a tragedy was avoided.

Tom served his early years under 3 legendary Club Captains of the 1950's – Des Morrison, Bob Sherwell and Doug Webster. A good swimmer and a tough young cane farmer, Tom did all that was asked of him around the Surf Club for many years.

As he stood with Sandra to take his leave from the Life Members Lunch back in May, there was a tear in the eye of this tough man. This was the last time he was to see his beloved Maroochy Beach and to be among his surf lifesaving friends. The moment was not lost on the 45 Life Members who were there either. That moment will stay with us, as will Tom's memory.

Our condolences to Sandra, Tim, Peter and Tom's wider family. Noel Godfrey, respected Life member and our friend, rest in peace.

Congratulations Peter Lucas

Peter Lucas, Life Member Surf Life Saving Queens- land Citation.

On behalf of all Maroochydore Surf Life Saving Club members, congratulations to Peter Lucas for receiving Life Membership to Surf Life Saving Queensland on Saturday 13th August at the State Conference Annual Awards of Excellence Gala held at Twin Waters.

Peter joined Maroochydore SLSC in 1971, stayed until 1975 and returned in 1998. By 2001 he was an Examiner and by 2004 the Branch Director of Life Saving, a position he held until 2009.

Such a meteoric rise for such an impressive Lifesaver: Peter made up for lost time, and apparently an entire lost decade, by immersing himself in the important work of Life Saving in Queensland. 15 years later, his period of special service is done and Peter can be assured in the knowledge that he has left Life Saving in a better place than when he found it.

Peter assumed the position of State Life Saving Officer in 2010, meaning that he has played an important Leadership role in Branch and State Life Saving for 6 years and State and National Life Saving for a further 6 years.

Among his many other roles stands 3 years as Branch Deputy President, State IRB Advisor, Surf Sports Official for 17 years and Peer Support Officer.

Peter was Branch Surf Rescue Championships Referee for 6 year (2004-2010).

Peter holds the National Patrol Service Award (2014), the ILS Citation of Merit, was a Clive Hammond Silver Medallist and Volunteer of the Year for Queensland in 2009.

He is a Life Member of the Sunshine Coast Branch.

Peter has had an influence over a wide range of Association activities in Queensland and has rendered truly special service over the last 21 years.

Peter is rightly described as a passionate Life Saving Volunteer, a stickler for detail and a role model for many in our Association. He is elected Life Member of SLSQ, in the Centenary Year of his Club.

Surf Sports

With training well underway for the start of the upcoming season it's time to set the foundation for competition ahead. It is time to listen to your coaches and be preparing for the long season ahead.

Our Olympians are home and we are all in awe of their commitment and performances in Rio, we are all so proud of Jordan and Alyce. Surely Tokyo will see them shine again.

Sam Bell, Pamela Hendry, Chelsea Gillett and Cody Rychvalsky are all in the Netherlands at the moment as members of the Australian Surf Life Saving Team and are due to start competition on the 7th of September. We wish them well. Coolangatta Gold is just around the corner and we are well represented again with 2 teams and 5 individuals taking up the challenge. The Qld State Endurance entries are open and the Masters are making their annual trip to Hervey Bay. The initial draft of the SLSQ Carnival Calendar has been released and the Board of Surf Sports will meet and endorse those Carnivals that Maroochydore will be attending in the coming weeks. I would caution you not to book accommodation other than States and Aussies too early as dates change and there will be some carnivals we will not be attending.

Subsidy applications are open and will close on 30th September 2016, the application form is on our web site.

Our planned USA tour next July is gaining momentum with fund raising well under way. A new surfboat is on the way because of the generous support of two of our long standing members and the fund-raising efforts of the Boat section, watch this space for the launch date.

Stuart Travers is settling in to his new role as Team Manager and all correspondence regarding entries and Senior Team matters should be directed to Stuart at teammanager@maroochysurfclub.com.au

The Patrol Calendar is out so check your Patrol Group and rostered patrol dates.

“ONE CLUB“

Coaches Report

Well done to all those training consistently at the moment. I've been more than happy with the attitude and effort levels going into the sessions. A positive attitude towards your training and willingness to take on the hard tasks goes a long way to building the mental ability to handle stress and fatigue in race situations.

We are entering our second phase of general strength and endurance development. Make sure you are on top of your nutritional requirements and giving your body the best ways to recovery and replenishment. Body maintenance should also be a part of your daily routine with time set aside for stretching.

Another successful pool rescue season done and dusted.

AUSTRALIAN POOL RESCUE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Gold Coast Aquatic Centre 5-7 August 2016

Australian Pool Rescue Championships were held in August at the Gold Coast Aquatic Centre at Southport.

Maroochydore has always had a strong presence at this event, and this year has been no different with 55 athletes competing at this 3 day event.

We finished 2nd overall against a massive Currumbin team. National records fell all weekend with our own competitors breaking their fair share of records along the way.

2016 Overall Australian Championship results:

- 1st - Currumbin SLSC
- 2nd - Maroochydore SLSC
- 3rd - Northcliffe BMD SLSC

The Interstate Team competition was held in conjunction with the Australian Pool Rescue Championships. Queensland edged out New South Wales to take out this competition. Congratulations to Sam Bell (Captain) Hayden Cotter, Chelsea Gillett, Kurt Lorme, Pamela Hendry (Captain) Summer Short, Hamarna Williams in helping steer Queensland to victory.

2016 Overall Interstate Championship results:

- 1st - Queensland
- 2nd - New South Wales
- 3rd - Western Australia

2016 Surf Safe Appeal

2016 will mark the 13th year of the Surf Safe Appeal, one of the largest annual fund-raising initiatives for Surf Life Saving Queensland. The appeal is pivotal in ensuring that volunteer surf lifesavers have the necessary equipment, training and resources to continue safeguarding our state's beaches and provides a valuable avenue for Surf Life Saving to highlight the services we provide to the community.

The main aim of the Surf Safe Appeal is to highlight Surf Life Saving's urgent need for funding and to encourage the community and corporate sector to answer Surf Life Saving's call for help.

The appeal will run from Monday 24 October – Sunday 30 October.

Volunteer lifesavers from the 58 Surf Life Saving Clubs across the state will participate in door-to-door and street collections seeking donations for their local club.

Melbourne Cup Lunch

Watch the race that stops the nation at Maroochy Surf Club's Melbourne cup cocktail party. There will be sweeps, live entertainment, fashions on the field and lucky door prizes. $59pp inc glass of bubbles & a gourmet buffet. Call 5443 1298 to purchase your ticket.

“Some meetings are meant to be”

Some weeks ago on a Saturday morning I was sitting on the bench next to the club just watching the surfers enjoying themselves and wishing my foot had healed so I could join them, when a fellow who I recognised from my time out in the surf sat down and we started chatting about things generally but nothing specific. I only knew his face from seeing him every now and then in the surf but had never really gotten to know him at all. He did not know that I was the club Chaplain, but he did know I was a club member.

All of a sudden he started to tell me a bit about himself and the problems he was facing in his life at that point in time and how he was really struggling with life in general.

You see, his wife had left him for another man, and as a result he was really down.

Naturally, he was devastated, but he was also trying to deal with his emotions, his anger, frustration, and hurt, and really needed to talk and get some things off his chest. We chatted for well over an hour that morning and have spoken several times since to encourage him through his difficult time.

Just through sharing with him and giving him an opportunity to express himself he was able to lift a huge load off his shoulders and cope with life without feeling such pain every day. It was important not to give him a false sense of hope but rather a hope that a resolution and outcome could be achieved if he maintained the right sort of positive attitude as part of the healing process. By walking with him it has been an amazing experience.

Just last weekend we met up again. This time his demeanour was much better. His wife has not had a change of heart and gone back to him but he is now coping with the matter, and has a positive outlook on life, and is getting back to some normality in his life.

By just walking alongside and lending a listening ear to support him has been an amazing experience that is so rewarding not just for him but also for me having had the privilege to help someone in need. How often do we hear about a similar thing in our society, with depression and all sorts of not so pleasant outcomes. He now knows that I am chaplain at the surf club and that he can contact me at any time if he needs to talk things over.

The role of a chaplain is many and varied but when we see so many people experiencing different painful experiences in their lives it is comforting to know that there is someone there to lean on when needed. Needless to say we are on first name terms now and have become good friends. I will call him every now and then to make sure he is OK and will no doubt share the odd wave or two in the future. Either Gary Olive or I as chaplains are always happy to chat at any time if you have a need or know someone who could do with some support. See you on the beach! Clive Herral | Club Chaplain

2016 Hydrothon

Thank you to all Maroochydore SLSC members who participated in the Hydrothon event on Aug 28. The event was a great success and raised vital funds for our club.

Well done to our volunteers at the Maroochydore Sunshine Coast marathon water station on Aug 21. We raised over $1,500 which will go straight to our Summer Surf Girl Darcey Starr-Thomas and Junior Activities. Great team work by some special Maroochydore SLSC members caring about our community and club.
